Camden Vicinage to Conduct Election Hearings

Superior Court judges will be available in Camden County to conduct remote or in-person hearings for primary election-related issues on Tuesday, June 7.

Voters with primary election-related concerns or questions about the June 7 primary or who are seeking assistance on how to cast their vote can contact the county clerk's office and/or board of elections.

If appropriate, the matter will be heard promptly by a designated judge, with notice to election officials. Election officials, petitioners, and attorneys will be able to appear before the designated judge by video or telephone.

Primary day hearings are not broadcast live. Individuals seeking to observe primary day hearings can do so via technology access rooms that will be made available at the courthouses.
