Larry Ashbridge Named Assistant Director of Probation Services

Larry Ashbridge has been named assistant director of the Office of Probation Services, effective Oct. 22, Glenn A. Grant, administrative director of the courts, announced today.

As assistant director, Ashbridge will oversee all areas of probation, including adult and juvenile supervision, recovery court, child support services, the Comprehensive Enforcement Program, and the Intensive Supervision Program.

Ashbridge succeeds Brenda Beacham, who was named director of probation services in July.

Ashbridge has been chief of the Judiciary's Child Support Enforcement Unit since 2018. He began his career with the Judiciary in 2010 as a probation officer in Bridgeton, Cumberland County, and later served as a court services supervisor and assistant chief probation officer in the Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage.

"Larry brings a depth of knowledge that allows the Judiciary to continue focusing strategically on the needs of probationers in order to help them make a successful return to society," Director Grant said.

Ashbridge is a graduate of West Virginia University, where he received his bachelor's degree in criminology and investigations.
