Submitted February 6, 2018 – Decided February 23, 2018

Before Judges Reisner and Gilson.

On appeal from Superior Court of New Jersey,
Chancery Division, Gloucester County, Docket
No. F-001383-13.

India McRae, appellant, pro se.

Reed Smith LLP, attorneys for respondent
(Henry F. Reichner, of counsel; David G.
Murphy, on the brief).

PER CURIAM

In this foreclosure case, defendant India McRae appeals from a March 20, 2017 order denying her application to stay eviction, following a sheriff's sale of the mortgaged premises. We affirm for the reasons set forth in the statement of reasons incorporated in the March 20, 2017 order. We add the following brief comments.

Defendant defaulted on the mortgage in November 2011. Plaintiff obtained a final judgment of foreclosure by default on September 27, 2015. Defendant is far out of time to appeal from the final judgment or from the earlier order entering default. Her current appeal is limited to the March 20, 2017 order. As to that order, the record contains proof that defendant was served with notice of the sheriff's sale, and we find no abuse of the trial court's discretion in denying the stay of eviction.

Affirmed.
