The Judiciary's Committee on Diversity, Inclusion and Community Engagement in Essex County is hosting an Zoom webinar to better understand the rights of justice-impacted youth.

Students impacted by the juvenile justice system face unique educational challenges, including difficulty reenrolling in school after release from youth detention centers. This webinar will review a student's right to enroll in their local public school and provide some practical tips on navigating the enrollment process.

Registration is required by Tuesday, Jan. 28. This free event is sponsored by the Committee on Diversity, Inclusion and Community Engagement, Essex Vicinage.
